Terms and Conditions

All items to be sold absolute there are no reserves. All items being sold with a starting bid of $100 or less will be charged a listing fee of $200 which is due at the time of consignment. You can start your item with a higher starting bid however if the item is being sold with a starting bid of more than $100, additional listing fees will apply and listing fee is not refundable even if the item does not take any bids. After your item sells a commission of 5% of the selling price will be deducted from your payment. Our auctions require the winning bidder to pay in full within three business days after the auction, in most cases we are paid within three days and you will receive your funds within a week after the auction. In case the winning bidder does not come through with the payment within the three days your funds will be delayed. We do not pay you for an item until we have been paid, furthermore, if the winning bidder rejects the machine and refuses to pay, Beauregard Equipment is not held responsible, the item can then be relisted at no charge or your listing fee will be reimbursed.

By signing this document you agree to the terms and conditions as stated above, you agree that the items listed on this document will be sold absolute and cannot be sold prior to the auction; they must sell via Auction Time.
